THE DEFINITIVE INDUSTRIAL SHOWCASE OF THE REGION

From being an importer of technology to today exporting sophisticated CNC Machine Tools to 20+ countries, RAJKOT is a well known example of becoming truly 'Atmanirbhar' or self-reliant through sheer talent and enterprise. Rajkot today is a major manufacturing hub that is an integral part of reliable supply chains of many critical industrial sectors both in India and abroad.

The RAJKOT MACHINE TOOLS SHOW since its first edition in 2006 has over the past 8 editions been an outstanding marketing platform for the regional engineering genius particularly the Machine Tools industry. It has significantly contributed towards opening up new national & international markets for the innovations of the enterprising regional industries including the large number of MSMEs. Today, it has become the definitive industrial showcase of the region.
